

EIACP RP on Combating Desertification, ICAR- Central Arid Zone Research Institute (CAZRI) Jodhpur celebrated the “National Science Day-2024”

EIACP RP unit at CAZRI, Jodhpur organized a Guest Lecture on National Science Day on 28th February, 2024. Dr. O.P. Yadav, Director, ICAR-CAZRI, spoke about the importance of Science day and elaborated the contribution of Sir C.V. Raman. Earlier, EIACP Coordinator Dr. P.C. Moharana welcomed the participants, briefed about the National Science Day and the activities of EIACP Unit.

Prof. (Dr.) Pradeep Kumar Singh, Dean, CTAE, MPUAT, Udaipur delivered an invited talk (online) on the very pertinent topic “Indigenous Technologies of Rainwater Harvesting for Enhancing Crop Productivity in Viksit Bharat” which emphasized the fact “जल ही जीवन है”. He cited many field based examples of Water harvesting techniques in the southern, eastern and western part of Rajasthan. Dr. Deepesh Machiwal, Principal Scientist, CAZRI proposed the vote of thanks. 40 participants including Head of Divisions, Scientists, Technical Officers and EIACP Staff (in offline) and 21 participants (online) took part in the event. EIACP Staffs; Dr. Mayur Bhati (PO), Ms. Sonali, Sh. Avinash Khatri coordinated the function.

